AGENDA

Curbing Pollution for Better Lives

5 October 2022, 13:10 – 14:40, Room 3/Cago Hall of the Cyprus Institute
English – Russian, Live

The side event aims at providing decision-makers with tools to user friendly access to structured information, introducing Global Monitoring Plan Data Warehouse of the Stockholm Convention. The event will showcase the content of the Global Monitoring Plan Data Warehouse, unique global data repository on POPs. Building on this software, it will be shown how data can lead to concrete policies. Also, progress on ambitions of the zero pollution action plan will be presented. Further, outcomes of the integrated assessment of air-quality in city Brno using novel citizen science methods for collecting data will be presented.

Chairperson: Anna Hubáčková, Minister of the Environment of the Czech Republic
Facilitator: Michal Pastvinský, Director of the International Relations Department
Rapporteur: Alena Doering, International Relations Department
